

Television Talked At Rotary Meeting

Hollywood Man Discusses Its Future on World and in Business

"How will television affect business," was the subject of an address given at the Jacksonville Rotary Club luncheon yesterday by Wendell McMahill of Hollywood, Calif., who is demonstrating his device at the Illinois Theater this week.

The speaker was introduced by Max Tschäuder. Albert Metcalf was program chairman.

Mr. McMahill said that within ten years television will be as common as radio is today.

Sam Clark, announced that the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs would hold a joint dinner on May 15. The Kiwanians recently won an attendance contest with the Rotarians and will be guests of the Rotary club at the dinner.

Herbert Hines, of Springfield, member of the capital Rotary club, invited the Jacksonville Rotarians to attend the 44th district conference which will be held in Springfield, May 6 and 7.

Guests of the club yesterday included: J. A. Roy and Allen Crane, Jacksonville; R. D. Still and O. R. Bush, Bloomington; Charles M. Russell, San Francisco.

Hollywood man talks TV at Rotary, April 18, 1936

Clipped By:

pantier

Fri, May 19, 2017